During the last Ice Age, a thousand-mile-wide land bridge connected Siberia and Alaska, creating the region known as Beringia. Over twelve thousand years ago, a procession of large mammals and the humans who hunted them crossed this bridge to America. Much of the Russian evidence for this migration has until now remained largely inaccessible to American scholars. American Beginnings brings together for the first time in one volume the most up-to-date archaeological and palaeocological evidence on Beringia from both Russia and America. "An invaluable resource. . . . It will no doubt remain the key reference book for Beringia for many years to come."|Steven Mithen, Journal of Human Evolution "Extraordinary. The fifty-six contributors . . . represent the most prominent American and Russian researchers in the region."|Choice "Publication of this well-illustrated compendium is a great service to early American and especially Siberian Upper Paleolithic archaeology."|Nicholas Saunders, New Scientist "This is a great book . . . perhaps the greatest contribution to the archaeology of Beringia that has yet been published. . . . This is the kind of book to which archaeology should aspire."|Herbert D.G. Maschner, Antiquity

Marquetta Masters offers parents a unique perspective of looking at distance learning education. In her book, Education Uninterrupted, she provides a framework for understanding how parents should navigate distance learning. She offers her life experiences and research as a roadmap to parent success. Masters draws on her parenting, education, and leadership experience to provide parents with strategies that will assist with school environment, instructional expectations, mental wellness, family balance, and transitioning back to a classroom setting. Masters renders deliberate actions that parents can use to acquire distance learning mastery. This book presents a clear plan for success while giving parents hope during uncertain times.
