In Anna Llenas' The Color Monster: A Pop-up Book of Feelings there is a wonderful presentation in page after page of engaging pop-ups that children will absolutely love. They virtually leap off the page. What is doubly nice about the book is the simplistic drawings. Just picture in your mind how a child would draw a "scary monster."

sharing who you are can be show-stoppingly scary, especially when it's not what people expect. Will Penelope get by with a little help from her friends?

Ralph is a roly-poly. Rita is a firefly. They're very different, and that's why they like each other . . . until, one day, they don't. Rita thinks Ralph's shell is too hard, and Ralph thinks Rita shines too brightly. Can they find a way to compromise? This celebration of love between two besties wows with amazing 3-D pop-ups on every page. It's perfect for Valentine's Day.

Little Monkey is having a bad day. After a major melt down, he goes to his room and uses some coping techniques to calm down.

What do hungry monsters eat? It all depends on where they are. In this laugh-out-loud, colorful pop-up board book, monsters under the bed eat things like red underwear, those in the bathroom enjoy bath soap and yellow duckies, and attic monsters just love old books and umbrellas. Kids will have a ball reading the silly rhymes and opening the monsters ' mouth to find a surprise pop-up of what ' s inside. What ' s more, Hungry Monsters also focuses on teaching children the early learning skill of recognizing colors. This adorable fun book is the perfect follow up to Party Animals (ISBN 0794412130). Kids will have a ball reading the silly rhymes and opening the monsters ' mouths to find out what ' s inside while learning the early skill of color recognition. • Teaches the early learning skill of color recognition! • Fun, interactive pop-up flaps on every spread! • Adorable illustrations!
