cutting winners short, forcing mediocre trades, and overtrading. You 've likely tried to fix these errors by improving your technical skills, and yet they persist. That 's because the real source of these mistakes is not technical—they actually stem from greed, fear, anger, or problems with confidence and discipline. If you are like most traders, you probably overlook or misunderstand mental and emotional obstacles. Or worse, you might think you know how to manage them, but you don 't, and end up losing control at the worst possible time. You 're leaving too much money on the table, which will either prevent you from being profitable or realizing your potential.
