This is the first volume in a series of four describing what we feel are the best 100 lighthouses along the East Coast of the United States. A short background history of each lighthouse is provided, along with a bonus section on New England fall color. The introduction includes some interesting details on lighthouses. Future volumes will include Florida and the Gulf Coast, the West Coast and the Great Lakes. Printed in full color, 102 pages.

Volume 2 of the Northwest Lighthouses Coloring Collection features historical information in each lighthouses biography, a sketch of the lighthouse lanterns's lens, and a colored print of the artist's original watercolor artwork. Both Volume 1 and 2 are educational as well as entertaining. Enjoy!

When night falls, young Abigail transforms herself into a princess and sneaks out of her room with the help of Lord William, a unicorn, and heads to the fairy feast, where she is the judge of the unicorn race.
